

Othello quotation practice grid.

9. 'Let husbands know / Their wives have sense like them. They see, and smell, / And have their palates both for sweet and sour, / As husbands have.' IV iii 98-101

1. When does Emilia say these words? What is the context?	2. What does Desdemona mean when she says a little earlier, 'Wouldst' thou do such a deed for all the world'?	3. And what is Emilia's response to that question (2)?
4. Complete this quotation a little later: 'Then let them use us well; else let them know, / The ills we do, their ills ?????? us so.'	5. Summarise what you see as the difference between Emilia and Desdemona in terms of their perceptions of men.
6. How does Desdemona respond to Emilia's statement in (4) above?	7. How is Venetian society portrayed in terms of its attitudes to women, during the course of the play?
