

Hamlet quotation practice grid.

11. 'No place, indeed, should murder sanctuarise. / Revenge should have no bounds.'

IV.vi.

1. What is happening at this point of the play?	2. What statement by Laertes is Claudius responding to? What does this show about Laertes?	3. Explain the word 'sanctuarise'.
4. What is the irony of this idea about 'sanctuary'?	5. In the next speech Laertes reveals he has done something Claudius did not ask him to – what? What does this show?	6. What happens to interrupt Claudius and Laertes talking?
7. Complete this quotation from elsewhere in this scene: 'The other motive, / Why to a public count I might not go, / ??????'	8. What 'bounds' should revenge have?	