

Hamlet quotation practice grid.

13. 'Imperial Caesar, dead and turned to clay, / Might stop a hole to keep the wind away.' V i.

1. Who is Hamlet talking to here – what is the context?	2. What has Hamlet just done before these words?	3. What happens immediately after these words?
4. Why, do you think, is Hamlet talking about 'Caesar' (an emperor?)	5. What state of mind is Hamlet in when he is speaking these words? In what way has he changed since we last saw him?
7. Complete this quotation from elsewhere in this scene: 'What is he that builds stronger than either the mason, the shipwright or ????' And the Answer?	8. Three significant deaths in the play other than Hamlet and Claudius? Why?	