

Hamlet quotation practice grid.

14. 'There's a divinity that shapes our ends, / Rough-hew them how we will.' V ii.

1. Who is Hamlet talking to here, and what is he referring to?	2. Complete the lines just before this statement: 'Our ???? sometime serves us well / When our ??? ??? do pall.'	3. Give an example of on act of 'rashness' in the play.
4. Now give an example of the opposite to (3): where someone deliberates and does not act.	5. Explain in your own words what Hamlet is saying in the statement.
7. Complete this quotation from slightly later in this scene, about Rosencrantz &amp; Guildenstern: 'Why man, they did ?????? / They are not near my ?????'	8. What does this statement show about Hamlet's state of mind at this point of the play? In what way/s has he changed?	