

Hamlet quotation practice grid.

8. 'My stronger guilt defeats my strong intent, / And like a man to double business bound? I stand in pause where I shall first begin, / And both neglect.' III iii

1. What is happening at this point of the play?	2. How does this speech start? Quote.	3. What does this speech reveal about Claudius that we did not know before?
4. Write down three adjectives which summarise Claudius's state of mind in this speech.	5. Complete this quotation elsewhere in the speech: "O limed soul, that struggling to be free / ????"	6. What is the last line of this speech?
7. What happens immediately after this speech?	8. How do we see the idea of being bound to 'double business' elsewhere in the play?	