

Macbeth quotation practice grid.

6. Macduff: 'Most sacriligious murder hath broke ope / The Lord's anointed temple, and stole thence / The life o'th'building.' II iii 60-62.

1. What does Macbeth do when Macduff speaks these words?	2. What does Macduff mean by 'sacriligious'?	3. Why does he use that word, and also the phrase 'The Lord's anointed temple'?
4. Not long before these words, Lennox says 'The night has been unruly': what does Lennox say has been happening?	5. Macduff here refers to 'breaking' open the temple. Where else in the play can you think of images of 'breaking'?
6. What conversation takes place at the end of this scene?	7. Imagine: what is going on inside Macbeth's head during this scene? (There is no soliloquy here).
